

Neural network classification using sigmoid activation functions to determine the boundaries of polygon A and B

