

Neural network classification using step activation functions to determine the boundaries of polygon A and B

